

I am a resident of the state of NJ and I want our state to continue to have its own do-not-call law. I feel it beter protects me from telemarketers than does the federal law.